THURSDAY, September 1. LAWYER'S DIARY .- THIS DAY .- COMMON PLEAS.-Nos. 117, 7, 51, 95, 113, 147, 129. Part 2-No. 148 DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES .-The first Jury trial in bankruptcy took place yesterday The parties,were Andrew B. Haxtun and others vs. Barney Corse. Mr. Corse is a petitioner in bankruptcy. He was formerly connected with his father, Israel Corse, in the The petioner had been engaged in Texas Scrip and other unfortunate speculations, and failed in 132, making Mr. Cartis, our present collector, his assignee. Israel Corsedied in March last, leaving a large property, that portion which would have fallen to the petitioner if unembarrassed, we understand, being devised to his children. He married a daughter of Mr. Samuel Leggett. Before Cliff-street was opened, in 1826, Israel Corse bought some waste land belonging to the Roosevelt estate, lying between Jacob and Pearl. He sold it to Mr. Leggett (it being necessary to sel; to him in order to obtain the signature of his wife to the deed, she being jealous of the influence of the petitioner, who was her step-son) and Mr. Leggett re-sold to petitioner. Israel Corse furnished money to put up several buildings, and finally took from Barney (the petioner) a bond and mortgage of the property for $100,000-said property was transferred by petitioner previous to his failure, having been done so, (subject to the mortgage,) under Mr. Israel Gorse. His bond and mortgage for $100,000 as due to Is thei Corse is on the schedule of the petitioner, and a majority of creditors contest it, as being "a false and fictitions debt," which if proven, will debar the petitioner from the benefit of the bankrupt act. Mrs. Corse, (widow of Israel)

in her testimony declared that the transfer and marigage

was all sham to deprive her of her dower, and was successful in doing so. [She received, in lieu, at the time of signing, a life interest in a house in Vandewater-street, and the farniture of her house with $2000, in her own right.] Other testimony was offered. The Jury, after being out all night case into court this morning with a declaration that they could not agree ; and were discharged.

Jones, the presentment of the Grand Jury, showing the glaring conduct of Justices Stevens, Parker and Matsell, and several of the Loco-Foco Aldermen, in releasing prisoners at Blackwell's Island, on or about the day of the Charter Election, and , in one instance, bringing them into the City, was read. Several of the members (including Ald. Davies, Jones, Woodhull, &c.) spoke on the subject. It was finally, on motion, ordered that Matthew C. Patterson, Esq., Counsellor-at-Law, ascertain if the necessary and proper evidence can be procured (agreeably to the presentment of the Grand Jury) to sustain an impeachment of the Special Justicess and to report on his being ready. The Court then ad

This was the substance of the testimony of Banks, varied, however, by that of other witnesses. For the defence, the deposition of a colored man named Henry Butler was read, which went to show that Banks, said he lost his nocket hook and money to show that Banks said he lost his pocket book and money in the second fight. In his cross-examination, however, he admitted that Banks said he lost his money in the first fight. PARISIAN STYLE OF HATS. The attention of gentiemen is particularly invited to the subscriber's beautifully fabricated Silk Hats, better known 21 " Warnock's Moleskin Hats." This article, since its introduction, has rapidly acquired and successfully maintains its popularity, produced by the subscriber in a manner altogether superior to any of the kind that has been or is now before the public, and is worthy of notice as possessing all the qualities of a superior hat, as lightness, beauty of finish permanency of color, and capacity for service.

That the Moleskin Silk Hat possesses the very elements studiensly aimed at in the production of a perfect article, it needs only to be stated that the foundation or body is manufactured from the finest description of stock, and the plush or covering of the finest quality silk, than which, I will readily be admitted, there is nothing of the nature of fabric more durable. To gentlemen who have not given the above hats I friel, it is remarked that they have been for years the most popular, and are now almost exclusively the fashionable Hat of Paris-this, to say the least, is a strong recommendation. To such gentlemen as have preference for French manufacture, it is remarked that, from the sub scriber's observations during a recent visit to the French metropolls, he is enabled to say, that though in one or two particulars the French excel, yet in the main, the article fold by him is superior. The pattern for the fall and winter is at once a model of symmetry and beauty. FOUR DOLLAR HATS.

The peculiar condition of the monetary affairs of the pres ent time, demanding of the mass of the community the adouther of retrenchment and economy, the subscriber deems it expedient, for the time being, to deviate somewhat from the system hitherto strictly adhered to in the conduction of his business, (that of selling none other than the first quality.) now offers to gentlemen disposed to economise, superior hat at the moderate price of Four Dollars. This article possesses in a large measure the constituent parts of the most costly, prepared with all their neatness and exter-nal finish, and are sold at a small advance upon the cost. They are "Hats for the Times." sep5 2wis WARNOCK, 170 Broadway.

Stocks, Bonds and other securities, Furniture and Out-Door Sales generally.

It is believed that the selling of Stocks by auction as a regular business has never been attempted in this city. In Boston and other cities mest of the stocks are disposed of at public sale. This mode of transacting business presents advantages over the present custom. At auction sales the dealers in stocks can always be present and judge for themselves whether the sales are fairly conducted or not, a privilege of which they are now deptived.

The seller will have to pay no more commission than the regular brokerage, and the purchaser will by attending to the sale save the amount of a brokerage.

The numerous kinds of stock effered in this market that are not quoted on the books of the brokers, and therefore are rendered unsalable, will by the adoption of this plan enable the belder to present them favorably before the public through the advertisement of the auctioneer.
